ELECTRONIC FILING GUIDELINES

Electronic filing may be beneficial for a wide variety of cases. Cases best suited for electronic filing may include those in which:

- Parties filing or requiring service are reasonably identifiable and will be represented by counsel.
- Parties filing or requiring service have or can acquire access to a computer, the world wide web and, where necessary, a scanner.
- The number and/or size of documents that are likely to be scanned before they are electronically filed is not unreasonable. While scanned documents can be electronically filed, numerous or voluminous documents that need to be imaged may be cumbersome to create, transmit or retrieve. Computerized textual documents, however, may be unlimited in size, subject to Local Rules or Orders regarding page limitations.
